

Midori Arts
AN ODE TO KARIGARI

ABOUT US

MidoriArts was founded by Anju Kapoor in 2022. Midori Arts empowers artisans by promoting and showcasing their traditional skills in a socially responsible way.

We believe in using technology to do good, and are committed to strengthening ancient craft techniques. We love using our brand to tell meaningful stories that help keep traditions alive.

WHY MIDORI ARTS?

At Midori Arts we handcraft beautiful lifestyle & home products that's kind to the planet! Sustainability is at the heart of everything we do. We use ethically sourced materials and environmentally conscious practices to create unique pieces that minimize waste and maximize beauty.

Every step of our production process is geared towards reducing our environmental impact. By choosing Midori Arts, you're not just getting a stylish, well-made product - you're joining us in our mission to preserve the planet for future generations.
